Dear Hal:

Thank you for your letter dated March 5, 1957, acknowledging receipt of Check No. 11,457,729 in the amount of $60,573.11. I must admit that we were somewhat remiss in failing to notify you of a change in our payment plan covering the contracts that are being administered by you.

There is to be no change in the way that checks are made out; however, we felt you should be informed at all times of the status of claims at the earliest moment possible which might not be possible the way our remittances were previously addressed. Therefore, on all of the contracts the checks hereafter will be delivered to either you or Bob (in your absence) for your action and further released to H. R. C. (as appropriate) or processing otherwise as indicated.

Very truly yours,

Doug
